

THE EMBASSY OF LUXEMBOURG IN ATHENS IN COOPERATION WITH THE ACROPOLIS MUSEUM

HAVE THE HONOUR TO INVITE YOU TO A RECITAL

Cathy Krier piano

Jean-Philippe Rameau / György Ligeti

21 February 2014

19:00 hours

ACROPOLIS MUSEUM

15 DIONYSIOU AREOPAGITOU STREET
ATHENS

WWW.THEACROPOLISMUSEUM.GR/EN

Born in Luxembourg in 1985, Cathy began taking piano lessons at the Luxembourg Conservatoire at the age of five. In 1999 she was admitted to Professor Pavel Gililov's masterclass at the Hochschule für Musik und Tanz in Cologne. In 2000 she recorded Ludwig van Beethoven's Piano Concerto in G major with the Latvian Philharmonic Chamber Orchestra conducted by Carlo Jans. Her first solo recording was released in 2008 and features pieces by Scarlatti, Haydn, Chopin, Dutilleux and Müllenbach.

Cathy Krier is the laureate of a number of prizes and scholarships including the Prix Norbert Stelmes, awarded to her by the Jeunesses Musicales du Luxembourg in 2003 and, in the following year, the IKB International Foundation Prize. In 2005 Cathy joined Cyprien Katsaris for a fourhand performance at the inauguration of the Luxembourg Philharmonie. In 2007 Cathy performed at the Luxembourg European Capital of Culture opening ceremony. Cathy's concert engagements included performances in the United States, the Netherlands, Austria, Spain, Germany, Latvia, Andorra, Italy, France and Belgium and China.

In addition to her work as a recitalist, Cathy has performed as a soloist with the Luxembourg Philharmonic Orchestra, the Solistes Européens du Luxembourg, the Luxembourg-based chamber orchestras Les Musiciens and L'Estro Armonico, the Liepaja symphony chamber sound orchestra and the Latvian Philharmonic Chamber Orchestra under various conductors including Jack Martin Händler, Bramwell Tovey, Garry Walker, Pierre Cao, Yoon K. Lee and Atvars Lakstigala.

<http://cathykrier.com>